

Basic Skills for Work

Combined Basic Skills and Communication Training for Low-Skilled Workers in Five Different European Work Sectors

Newsletter 4 – September 2006

At least one of every four adults in Europe fails to reach minimum literacy levels for coping with everyday life and work in a complex, advanced society.

The increasing complexity of work processes requires higher literacy, numeracy and communication skills also at the lowest work levels, especially to meet quality and safety aspects.

The project has selected the five sectors and develops training materials and curricula for basic skills and communication skills for un-skilled workers in

- Hospital and care
- Construction
- Tourism and leisure
- Cleaning
- Railway transport

Basic Skills for Work in front of Notre Dame!

Project presentation and exchange of experience at the information event of the Fondation d'Auteuil in Paris

Within the framework of the Basic Skills for Work deployment meeting in Paris (June 9-10 2006), we presented our project at the big information and celebration event (160th anniversary) of the Fondation d'Auteuil in front of Notre Dame.

The event focused on new forms of education, training and social integration of young people facing major difficulties in professional life and society in general.

Basic Skills Curricula ready for download!

Since August, the final versions of the "Curricula for Combined Basic Skills and Communication Training in Five Different Work Sectors" can be downloaded free of charge at our project website!

Dissemination activities:

Our Austrian strategic partner Arbeitskammer (one of the two large social partners representing the workers' side) has organised, in collaboration with BEST Training, a workshop for his employees in order to inform them about the projects outcomes and the availability of the curricula.
